

Wesley Boynes, JP

Senior Elder for Philadelphia Life Centre

Born in San Fernando, Trinidad and Tobago, Wesley Boynes has been consistently involved in strategic planning, human resource management and deployment, project management, communications management, and strategic collaboration with various individuals and organizations throughout Jamaica. For more than two decades he has served the Jamaican society in various capacities; this includes serving as serving as Senior Elder for Philadelphia Life Centre (formerly Northgate Centre for Global Impact) located in Ocho Rios, St Ann, since 1997 and as a Justice of the Peace for the Parish of St. Mary since 2018.

His contribution to education and community development in Jamaica has been extensive, driven by his love for people and their holistic development. Wesley Boynes has a vision to see a strong Jamaican nation take its place as a leader in the world of human development. He is committed to encouraging and assisting individuals and organizations to go beyond perceived limitations in order to develop their fullest potential and capacity and in so doing, discover their God-ordained destinies.

In this regard, he refers to himself as a life developer and believes that God has given us all we need to develop strong and powerful lifestyles so we really do not have to settle for second best

He has been married to Angella Boynes of Kingston since 1995 and is the father of three children, Rinnah, Jabulani and Jodi-Lani.
